SANTA CLAUS AT THE NEW HALL.

During the past two days a number of the committee on the Christmas indder have been at work in Union hall. When completed it will be a very handsome affair, representing a fire place and chimney, while the two ladders are provided for Mr. Santa Claus fo gain admittance to the chimney down which he will descend, probably, and make his bow to the clifficen. The little folks should be on time to give the old man a cordial welcome.

be played in this wise: Take a sheet of ordinary writing paper, fold it up carefully, and enclose a bank note sufficiently large to pay all arrears and a year in advance. What adds immensely to the pleasure of the game is to send along the name of a new subscriber or two, accompanied by cash. Keep your eye on the editor, and if a smile adorns his face the trick works like a charm. It now being near the first of the year, it is an appropriate time to play the joke. Just try it.
